WALL PAPER FASHION

Wallpaper is a new favorite in modern home decoration. It is not only beautiful, durable, artistic, but also environmentally friendly.

WALL PAPER Environmental Protection

FASHION

It is mainly processed from grass, bark, and natural wood pulp containing wood fibers, and then printed and embossed. Its surface and substrate are both composed of paper, in short, pure paper wallpaper is a specially treated piece of paper.

Environmentally

Wallpaper or wallpaper is produced from bleached chemical wood pulp, which is then coated, printed, embossed or coated with plastic on the surface, and finally cut and packaged before leaving the factory.

Has a certain strength, toughness, beautiful appearance, and good water resistance. It can quickly create a decoration style with multiple options, with specific original wallpaper stretching the space and adjusting the sense of space hierarchy.

Environmental protection

Firstly, we need to know that it is impossible to achieve zero pollution during the decoration process, and only the pollutants can be controlled within the minimum range. Firstly, we need to control gradual materials from the source, and secondly, avoid excessive decoration. Nowadays, the decoration is heavy on soft decoration, light on hard decoration. As long as the soft decoration matches well, the house can still produce a pleasing effect.
